

Discipline: Armenian language

Annotation

Labor intensity: 7 ECTS, 252 academic hours.

Final control form: test.

For students certified in the Armenian language, tuition lasts 2 semesters, and 3 semesters for those not certified. Practical course program in Armenian consists of five sections, each of which includes material from a specific the area of language communication.

The program also includes grammar material, necessary to improve speech skills. Goals and objectives of the discipline are based on improving the communication skills of students, on deepening of cognitive knowledge about different areas (literature, history, architecture etc.) of the centuries-old culture of Armenia, about the intercultural relations of the Armenian and Russian peoples.

Relationship with other disciplines of the direction of training "Tourism" Interconnected as much as it relates to learning and deepening skills terminology of this discipline.