

Discipline: City Management

Annotation

Labor intensity: 4 ECTS, 144 academic hours.

Final control form: test

The course is a sequential identification and presentation of scientific and theoretical and practical problems of state and municipal administration. Along with disclosure basic concepts and categories of state and municipal government, outlines the main approaches of the state structure, complex processes of the formation of legal, socio-economic foundations of a modern democratic society. I know the functions and structure of public, state and municipal sectors, factors of their growth and management.

Theories of the state, state management and its organization. Focus on setting goals state economic policy, theory and technology of state management, regional and municipal processes, social movements and phenomena, state regulation of the market. Transformation issues are also touched upon state and municipal administration using modern and high technologies (eGovernment, Smart city, etc.).

Methodologically, the course is based on the study mechanisms of functioning of state and municipal authorities, complex structuring the system of bodies of various levels of government and main directions activities of political, economic, social institutions based on the application systemic, structural and functional, situational, synergistic approaches, attention is focused on organizational and managerial issues in the state and municipal government.

Communication with other disciplines. “Modern problems of state and municipal management” as a discipline is based on knowledge of disciplines: “Constitutional right”, “Civil right”, “Macroeconomics», «Statistics», «Economic history”, “Theory of organization”, etc., it is presented in close relationship with economic, legal, political science and other humanities.

Requirements for the initial levels of knowledge and skills of students for passing discipline. When studying a discipline, it is assumed that the student has studied and largely degree knows the basics of economic theory, management, constitutional, administrative and other types of law, information technology, social economic statistics.