

Discipline: Inventory Management

Annotation

Labor intensity: 2 ECTS, 72 academic hours.

Final control form: test

The course “Inventory Management” is devoted to the study of theoretical, methodological and practical issues of forming a development strategy and creating a management system streaming processes to ensure the best possible satisfaction of the needs consumers with minimal total costs.

In modern conditions the economic processes performed are complex, interrelated and integrated. Within the framework of this discipline, questions of the formation development strategies and improving the efficiency of management of logistics-oriented analysis, material and labor flows, processes increasing the level of efficiency of the organization, development and implementation of logistics systems and methods of systematic organization of streaming processes in end-to-end logistics supply chains from the source of raw materials to delivery of finished products and after-sales service to end users.